

Regulations Innovation Award 2019

Article 1. General Information

- a. The 'Amsterdam Science and Innovation Award' (hereinafter: "AmSIA" or "Competition") is organized by:
Innovation Exchange Amsterdam (IXA), here after mentioned as 'Organisation'.
IXA is the valorisation center (and legally a collaboration of) of AMC, HvA, UvA, and Stichting VU and Stichting VUmc (the "Organizing Parties"). The Competition is financially made possible by the Organisation and sponsors.
- b. The Competition aims to stimulate researchers, staff and students to generate ideas with practical application based on research at one of the partnering Amsterdam universities, universities of applied sciences, academic medical centers and public research centers.
- c. Participant means: researcher, staff or student at one of the Amsterdam universities, universities of applied sciences, academic hospitals and public research centers who participates in the Competition.
- d. Finalist means: Participant who is selected for the final of the Competition.

Article 2. Entries and eligibility

- a. Entering the Competition does not constitute a relinquishment of copyright and/or any other form of intellectual property rights. The Participant hereby gives the Organisation the right to publish his/her idea(s) and name in the event that he/she will become a Finalist for promotional purposes on the internet and other media. In the entry the Participant grants the Organisation permission to use their ideas and names for promotional purposes as stated in the official application form. The Participant indemnifies IXA (i.e. the organisations for which IXA is the valorisation center) of any third party claims regarding the infringement of intellectual property rights relating to his/her idea(s).
- b. Participants should be aware that taking part in the Competition may make it more difficult or impossible to apply for patents at a future date. During the review process the Organisation will monitor for the need of IP protection and make the Participant aware thereof if applicable. The Organisation will treat entries confidential during the internal Jury process. The Organisation recommends that Participants gather information on protection of research results (ideas or inventions) in advance by contacting IXA via www.ixa.nl or the TTO of your organisation.
- c. Participants will receive a confirmation of receipt of their entry in the Competition. Entry forms will not be returned to Participant.

All entries must comply to the following criteria:

1. Participants are employed by or student at one of the partnering Amsterdam universities, universities of applied sciences, academic hospitals and/or public research centers. It is possible to register one idea on behalf of one or more people.
2. Entries are only accepted via the official registration form, see section 6 of this clause. All parts of the registration form must be completed and the text may not exceed the indicated number of words.

3. Entries are only accepted in the English language. Participants are encouraged to include an attachment (e.g. a design, sketch, photograph or other visual representation) of maximum 1 A4 (front and back of the paper). All documents, registration form and attachments, should state the Participant's name.
4. All essential information a Participant wishes to be taken into consideration by the Jury should be in the official registration form. The attachment is considered "just for information" and is not taken into account in the Jury process.
5. Entries received after the closing date may be rejected by the Organisation.
6. Entries should be registered via this URL: www.amsia.nl
7. The idea may not have been commercially exploited (e.g. licensed) or valorized in another way yet.

Article 3. Jury Process

- a. The Organisation will treat entries confidentially.
- b. After receipt all entries will be assessed by the Organisation on the eligibility criteria stated in clause 2. Entries that do not meet the criteria will not be submitted to the Jury and take no part in AmSIA. They will be informed by the Organisation by e-mail.
- c. The Organisation reserves the right to deviate from the categories indicated on the online registration form to facilitate the Jury process.
- d. Depending on the amount of entries received the Organisation may appoint independent experts to rank the entries received. Experts from one of the institutions are not allowed to rank entries from their own organisation.

All entries are sent by the Organisation to the Jury. Entries will be assessed on the following criteria:

- ❖ Innovativeness: why is your idea innovative/inspiring?
  - ❖ Societal / commercial / academic benefit - which specific problem can be solved with your idea? And why is that of value for society?
  - ❖ Application - which application do you envisage? Who will benefit and/or which group is prepared to use / adopt / pay (for) this idea / concept / product / service?
  - ❖ Feasibility of idea - do you have some evidence that it will work / that society will use your application.
  - ❖ Entrepreneurship - how are you going to enroll your idea and introduce it to the market? Consider partnerships and the steps necessary to turn the idea into reality. Show entrepreneurship to make it happen.
- e. The Jury will decide which entries are to be nominated to participate in the finals. The Finalists receive their nomination in writing from the Organisation and are invited to present their entry in the form of an elevator pitch to the Jury and audience. The Jury will subsequently decide, on the basis of the pitch and the criteria, which nominee will be awarded the prize.

- f. The Jury in 2019 is chaired by Gigi Wang and consists of:
- Gigi Wang, professor at the University of Berkeley, has a worldwide reputation in the field of entrepreneurship and innovation and is connected in various ways to the Amsterdam knowledge institutions and startups.
  - Jonathan Coutinho and Wouter Potters, winners 2018,
  - Marja Zonneville, General Manager Shell Technology Portfolio
  - Joris Tinbergen, CEO of Cleverbase
  - Ton van Leeuwen, Chairman Department Biomedical Engineering and Physics at AMC
  - Nina Tellegen, directeur Amsterdam Economic Board
  - Other jury members: will be announced on the website
- g. The Jury's decision will be final and there will be no correspondence about the outcome.
- h. The Jury will not produce and disclose a jury report.

Article 4. Prize money

- a. The Jury will award a winner in each of the following categories alpha/ gamma, beta and life sciences. The winners will be awarded a prize of € 7.500,- (seven thousand and five hundred euro).
- b. The Jury may decide to award more than one prize in this Competition. The category and the type of the prize can be determined by the Jury during the selection process.
- c. Payment of the prize money is preferably done to a department or research group. Or it can be wired to the spin off, start up BV or Stichting, which will develop the idea. In case the winner is a person not affiliated with any of the above mentioned entities the prize will be paid to the persons bank account. In which case prize money is considered as a secondary income and therefore subject to Dutch tax. The prize money is therefore paid as a gross amount. The winner of AmSIA is responsible for the payment of tax and possible statutory social security contributions on the prize money.
- d. The prize money needs to be used to develop the idea further. The Organisation might ask the winner to justify where the money was spent on to check this.

Article 5. Deadline

- a. Entries must be received by Monday 9 September 2019 by 24.00 at the latest, via the official Registration Form at our site www.amsia.nl
- b. The finals and awards ceremony of AmSIA takes place on Tuesday, 26 November 2019 at 15:00 PM at the Auditorium of NEMO Science Museum.

Article 6. Final provisions

- a. All eventualities not covered by these regulations will be subject to the Jury's final decision.
- b. By entering the Competition, the Participants agree that they have read and agree to these regulations.
- c. A Participant may request to delete its entry in the Competition by sending an e-mail to info@ixa.nl. After such a request, the Organisation will delete all information on the entry and on the Participant where possible.
- d. The Organisation is not liable in the event that an idea/entry does not create a certain outcome or is not fit for a particular purpose. The organisations for which IXA is the valorisation center are not liable vis-à-vis the Participants nor the organisations they are affiliated with for any damages they may suffer as a result of participating in the Competition.
- e. Dutch law applies. The Court of Amsterdam has exclusive jurisdiction.

General Provisions

These regulations have been stipulated on 7 June 2019 by the Organisation of the Amsterdam Science & Innovation Award. They replace previous regulations.
